Atlantic City.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ATLANTIC CITY, October 30.—Golf has attracted the attention of seashore society this week during the three-day tourney of the Atlantic City Country Club at Northfield. Players from every section of the east were on the roster and hundreds went out to the course to follow the entrants in the most exciting contests. Many visiting players who came for the tournament have decided to remain here for several weeks' play and a number of matches will be arranged for their benefit. The Northfield course is in the finest condition this fall and has been bunkered and trapped since the last big match until it is one of the sportiest of seashore links.

Fine roads tempted many auto parties on short trips during the week and the warmth of the coast Indian summer made late season bathing a pleasure.

Boardwalk amusement men complain that the fine weather has cut down their matinee audiences.

A number of special Halloween affairs took place in the big hotels to-night and maskers were given possession of both the boardwalk and the big piers, where costume dances were held.

Many returning tourists from the Panama exposition came in during the week for rest and recuperation after their travels across the continent. Yachting and fishing still have their devotees.

Mrs. W. B. Wilson of Washington, who is at the Dennis, is entertaining Miss Frances V. Schutt of Highwood Park, N. J. George W. Hutchison and Mrs. Hutchison have joined the Washington colony at the Dennis.

At A Time When You Can Use Them To The Best Advantage, Comes The $4,000,000 Auction Sale of Alex. Smith & Sons. Rugs

Last week Alex. Smith & Sons held a great auction wherein close to $4,000,000 worth of Fine Rugs and Carpets were sold to the highest bidder. Having been swamped with foreign orders, their first thought was for a disposal of their present stocks, which simply had to be gotten out of the way. Hence this auction sale. Our aggressive buyer attended this stupendous auction and secured some of the cream of their stocks for this occasion.
